THE NUMBER

RECOMMENDED LIST PRICE

$529,000 to $545,000

Priced where Monterey two-bedroom condos are going under contract this fall — not where they closed last spring.

Six matching two-bedroom sales closed since May at an average of $567,500. But the two spring sales averaged $617,500 and the four summer sales $542,500 — a 12% step down — and since September, 2/1 units have gone under contract only at $499,999 and $529,000, each after a $50,000–$89,000 cut and 100+ days on market. Golden Oaks itself has no 2026 sale: 2308, the same floor plan as 2107, was canceled twice at $589,900 and $598,000. The range puts 2107's ground-floor patio position at the top of the current band and below the five listings sitting unsold at $560,000 and up.

The market data indicates a straight average of $576,250 ($642/sq ft) across the sold comparables — a figure that weights April's sales the same as August's. Weighted to the last 90 days, the band is $500,000–$545,000.

Purchased March 2020 for $440,000. At $539,000 that is a gross gain of about $99,000 — roughly 22% — before costs; the 2026 assessed value is $490,822.

Estimates for discussion only. Commission is negotiable and not set by law. Monterey County documentary transfer tax is $1.10 per $1,000; title, escrow and HOA fees are typical ranges and are confirmed at listing. Loan payoff is an estimate of the 2020 VA loan's current balance (originated at $440,000) — replace it with the actual payoff figure. Property-tax and HOA-dues prorations, and any buyer concessions or rate-buydown credits, are not included.

Golden Oaks sales in 2026 · 2 canceled · 1 sitting at 259 days

Every two-bedroom condo listing in Monterey this year — what happened, and when

Sold at closing date; under contract at contract date; withdrawn, canceled and expired at the date they left the market; active as of today. Dashed lines trace price reductions of 3% or more.

Sold-to-list ratios fell from 97–100% in spring to 92–100% in summer; two of the four summer sales closed at 92% of list.

The three units under contract now averaged 94 days and $45,000 in reductions before a buyer committed — pricing right on day one skips that.

Every listing that launched above $575,000 since June has either been cut, withdrawn, canceled or is still sitting.

Sellers are offering concessions and rate buydowns across the set (eight listings mention them). A buydown credit is a cheaper lever than a price cut.

For 2107 this means the trailing average overstates value and the fall contracts understate what a well-positioned ground-floor unit can do — if it launches inside the current band with photography, tour and pricing all right on day one.

THE EVIDENCE

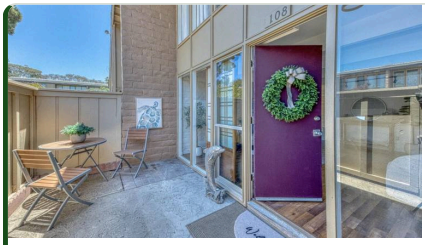

Twenty listings. Six set the price; three show where buyers are now.

Matching sold units drive the valuation. Units under contract are the freshest read on the market. Actives and off-market listings show where buyers stopped. Different bath counts and financing outliers are kept out of the math.

Anchor Oaks · Sold Aug 12, 2026 · 100% of list

2 bd 1.5 ba 1,026 sf $551 /sf $566 HOA

Updated 1,026 sq ft end unit with a half bath, Corian counters, walk-in closet, private patio. Sold as-is.

Priced at $565,000 and gone in 7 days at full price — but it is 1,026 sq ft with a half bath, so it is the top of the band, not the middle. Correct pricing still gets a fast, full-price sale.

SOLD · DRIVES THE PRICE 55 days

$540,000

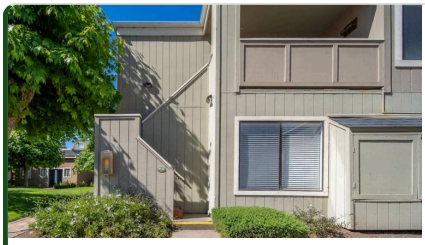

820 Casanova Ave #30

Cypress Park · Sold Aug 10, 2026 · 92.5% of list · cut -8% from $584,000

2 bd 1 ba 860 sf $628 /sf $445 HOA

Fully furnished, updated kitchen with granite and stainless, loft-style second bedroom, wood floors, in-unit laundry.

Updated and furnished, listed at $584,000, closed at $540,000 — 92.5% of list after 55 days. The clearest single read on where an updated 2/1 lands today.

SOLD · DRIVES THE PRICE 69 days

Cypress Park · Sold Jul 20, 2026 · 98.1% of list

2 bd 1 ba 860 sf $599 /sf $490 HOA

Multi-level plan: main-level bedroom and bath plus an upstairs bedroom. List price was raised from $449,000 to $525,000 after #85 closed.

Chased #85's $585,000 sale upward and still closed at $515,000 after 69 days. The floor of the summer band.

SOLD · DRIVES THE PRICE 15 days

$550,000

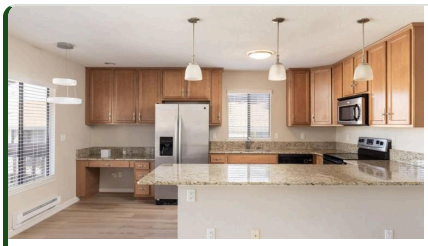

461 Dela Vina Ave #205

Monterey Village · Sold Jul 15, 2026 · 92.4% of list · cut -8% from $595,000

2 bd 1 ba 970 sf $567 /sf $600 HOA

Single-level 970 sq ft with fireplace, private patio, in-unit laundry and two parking spaces. All cash.

Sold in 15 days — at 92% of list. Buyers moved fast and still took $45,000 off. That is the summer pattern.

SOLD · DRIVES THE PRICE 133 days

$650,000

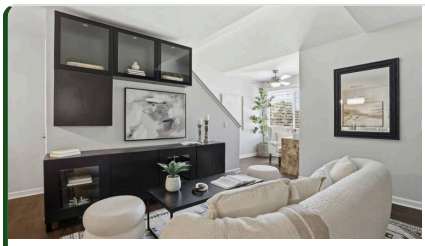

300 Glenwood Circle #265

Footprints on the Bay · Sold Jun 8, 2026 · 97.7% of list · cut -2% from $665,000

2 bd 1 ba 879 sf $739 /sf $560 HOA

Upstairs end unit with gas fireplace and large balcony; complex has an indoor heated pool, fitness center and clubhouse.

The top of the set, but it took 133 days from a December launch and Footprints carries an amenity premium Golden Oaks doesn't. Context for the ceiling, not a target.

SOLD · DRIVES THE PRICE 12 days

$585,000

820 Casanova Ave #85

Cypress Park · Sold May 8, 2026 · 97.7% of list · cut -2% from $599,000

2 bd 1 ba 860 sf $680 /sf $490 HOA

Updated upstairs end unit overlooking the pool: shaker maple cabinets, granite, stainless, dual-pane windows. All cash.

The spring high-water mark for a 2/1 — updated, cash, 12 days. The same complex's next three outcomes were $540,000, $515,000 and a $499,999 contract.

Cypress Park · Pending Oct 8 · closes Nov 4 · cut -15% from $589,000

2 bd 1 ba 884 sf $566 /sf $490 HOA

Ground-floor, single-level Edgewood plan with an expansive private patio, new laminate and paint, full-size laundry, separate utility room.

The closest thing to 2107 in the set — ground floor, big patio, refreshed — and the freshest signal: listed at $589,000 in June, cut to $499,999, under contract October 8 after 122 days.

Golden Oaks · Sold Dec 16, 2025 (county record)

1 bd 1 ba 656 sf $663 /sf

656 sq ft one-bedroom plan; recorded sale from the county record, so list price and days on market are not available.

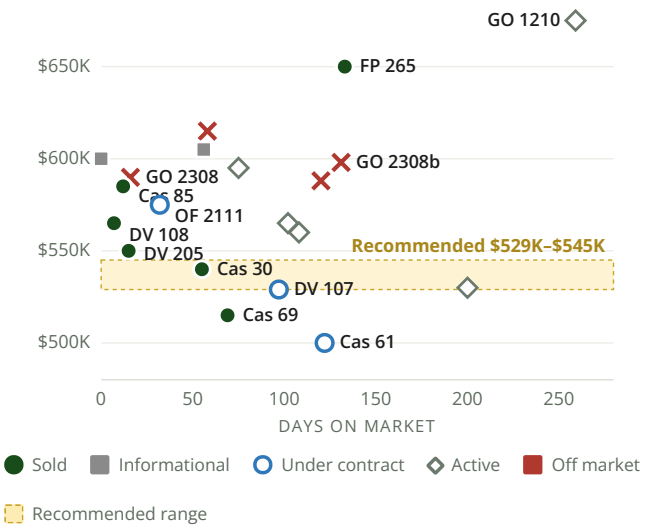

The only Golden Oaks closing in the last twelve months: $663 per sq ft last December. Different size class, so it's informational — but $663/sq ft on 2107's 802 sq ft is $532,000, inside the range.

THREE PICTURES

Price, time and size — with the recommendation drawn on.

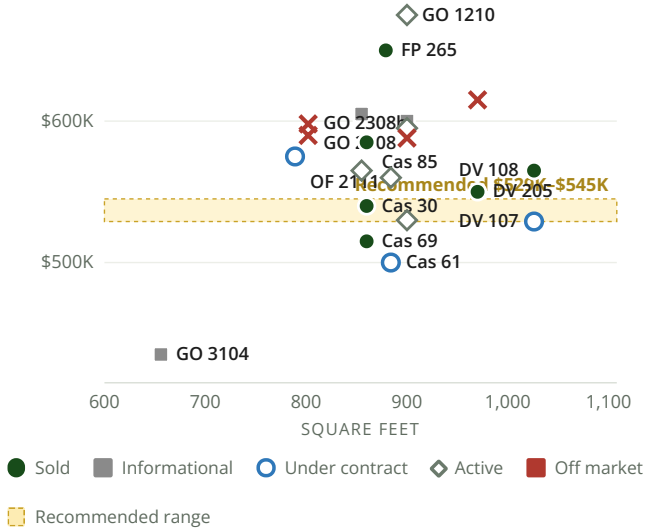

Price vs. days on market

The fastest sales were priced inside the band from day one. Above $585,000, everything is waiting or gone.

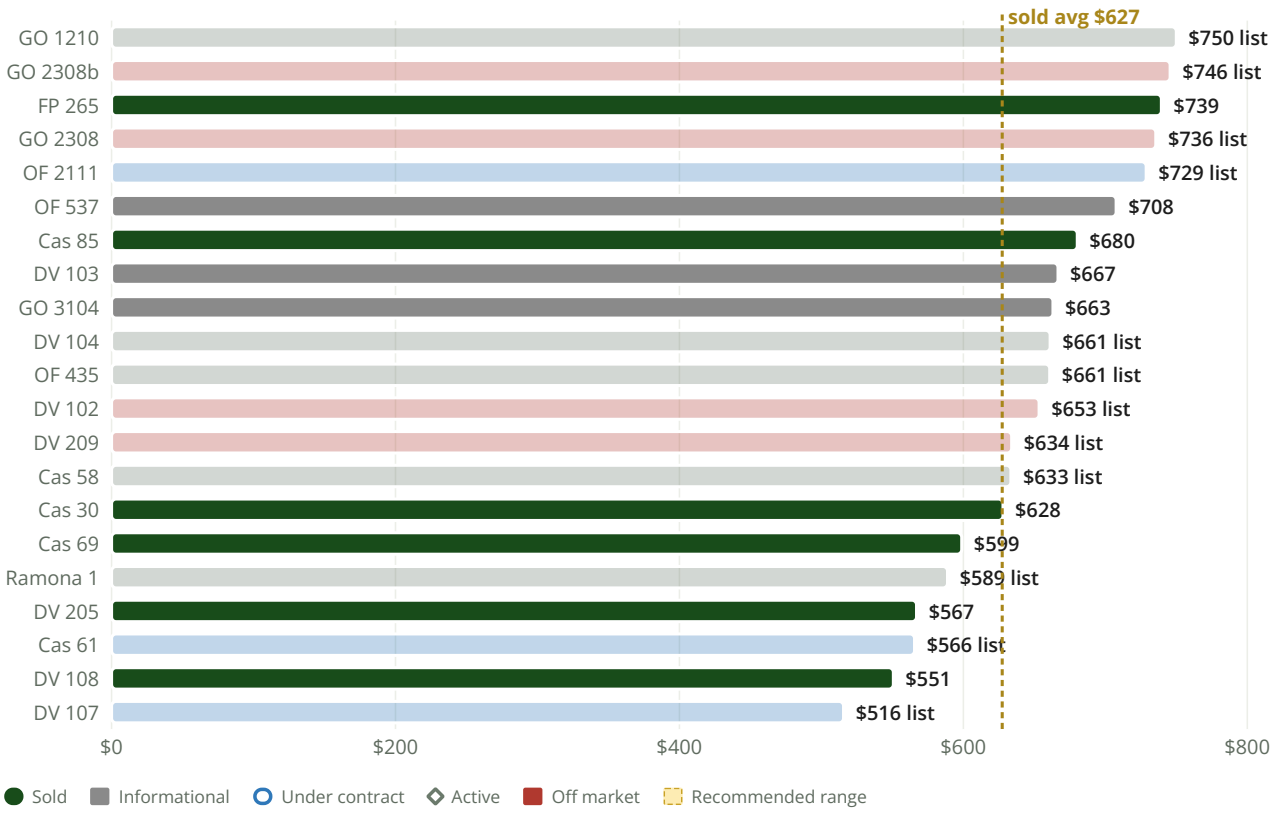

Price vs. size

Size barely explains price here; timing and condition do. 2107 is on the small end, so the $/sq ft cross-check runs low.

Price per square foot

Cross-check only. Unsold listings show asking $/sq ft, not what a buyer paid.

YOUR HOME

2107 Golden Oaks Lane, Monterey

A ground-floor two-bedroom at Golden Oaks — 802 square feet, built 1980, with a fireplace, central heat and an expanded, sunny patio looking over the pool and the landmark oaks, steps from parking and the laundry facilities. Position inside the complex is 2107's edge: the patio is the largest private outdoor space of any two-bedroom in this comp set, and the pool-and-oaks outlook is the one feature Golden Oaks buyers consistently pay for.

2 BED	1 BATH	802 SQ FT	1980 BUILT
$545–625 HOA / MO	Ground LEVEL	Assigned PARKING	Golden Oaks Condominiums COMMUNITY

Golden Oaks Condominiums from the Phillips Real Estate flythrough. 2107 sits on the ground floor of Building 2; interior photography is step one of the plan.

What sells it

Ground floor, single level

The two most recent 2/1 contracts in Monterey (Casanova #61, Dela Vina #103) were both ground-floor units. No stairs is a real buyer filter at this price point.

Expanded patio over the pool and oaks

Larger than any patio in the comp set. It photographs, it shows, and it is the lead image of the listing.

A 2020 VA loan that may be assumable

The unit was financed in March 2020 with a VA loan — rate and balance to confirm. If it is assumable, it is the single biggest lever in this market: Dela Vina #103 got full price in zero days on a 2.3% assumable.

Golden Oaks location

Minutes to Del Monte Center, Highway 1 and 68, Del Monte Beach and downtown. Heated pool, large parking lot and on-site laundry.

Before launch

Photography first

There are no photos of 2107 anywhere yet. Stills, 3D tour and floor plan get captured before anything else happens — buyers are screening online before they call.

Condition items from the walk-through

[Paint, flooring, kitchen and bath condition — to be listed after the walk-through.] Updated units in this set sold; the ones that needed work sat or were cut.

Confirm the facts

Current HOA dues and any pending assessment, parking assignment, the VA loan's rate and payoff. Order the HOA disclosure package (Civ. Code §4525) at signing.

MARKETING PLAN

Built for the first two weekends.

In this market a two-bedroom condo sells on the first two weekends or it joins the five listings averaging 149 days. Everything below is aimed at making launch weekend the biggest audience 2107 will ever have — at a price that beats the inventory sitting around it.

Photography, 3D tour & floor plan

Professional stills, a Giraffe360 virtual walkthrough and a measured floor plan, captured before the listing goes live. The patio-and-pool shot leads everything.

Aerial boundary video

A short flythrough showing where 2107 sits in Golden Oaks and how close Del Monte Center, the beach and downtown are. On the MLS, on social, and on the flyer by QR.

MLSListings + full syndication

Live on MLSListings on a Thursday with every photo and the tour attached, syndicated to Zillow, Realtor.com, Redfin, Homes.com and every brokerage site on the Peninsula.

Broker tour & agent outreach

Monterey County broker tour the first week, plus direct email to the agents on the last twelve two-bedroom condo transactions — their buyers who lost or walked are still looking.

The Phillips network

Terra Vista manages 40+ Peninsula associations, including Cypress Park and Footprints on the Bay. Residents and renters there hear about 2107 before the public does — a buyer pool no other brokerage can reach.

Flyer, social & email

Branded flyer with QR codes to the tour and video; 1080-square and story graphics; a launch email to the PRE buyer database and the Golden Oaks owner list.

Open houses

Both weekends after launch, with sign-in and same-day feedback to you. Second showings happen within 24 hours.

The rate lever

If the 2020 VA loan is assumable (VA loans generally are, with lender approval), it leads the remarks from day one — Dela Vina #103 got full price in zero days on a 2.3% assumable. If not, a pre-approved rate-buydown credit does the same job far cheaper than the $50,000 cuts the market is extracting from sellers who wait.

WEEK 0

Prepare

- Listing agreement signed; HOA disclosure package ordered (Civ. Code §4525)
- Paint, flooring and repair decisions made from the walk-through list
- Declutter, patio staged, pool-side angle cleared
- Photography, 3D tour, floor plan and aerial captured

WEEK 1

Launch

- Live on MLSListings Thursday; syndication confirmed Friday morning
- Broker tour
- Launch email, flyer and social graphics out
- First open house weekend; feedback to you Sunday night

WEEK 2

Build

- Second open house weekend
- Agent outreach to the buyers' agents on the last twelve 2-bed condo deals
- Day-14 checkpoint: showings, saves, views, feedback — in writing
- Offer review if offers are in hand

WEEKS 3–4

Decide

- Offers negotiated, or a price decision made — never a silent drift
- HOA documents delivered to buyer; contingency clocks running
- Inspections and appraisal coordinated
- Day-30 written review

LAUNCH STRATEGY

Launch on a Thursday with photos, tour and floor plan all live, price inside the range on this page, lead with the patio, and let the first two weekends do the work. Twenty Monterey two-bedroom listings this year tell one story: the ones priced inside the band sold in 7–15 days; the ones that reached were cut $39,000 on average and are still waiting.

WHAT TO EXPECT

You will never wonder what is happening with your listing.

Every Monday

A one-page report: showings, online views and saves, open-house traffic, agent feedback, and what we recommend.

Within 24 hours

Feedback from every showing, good or bad, by text or call — you decide which.

Two agents

Bill and Andrew Phillips both cover 2107. One of us answers the phone every time.

Day 14 and day 30

A written pricing read with a recommendation. If the market is telling us something, you hear it from us first.

WHY PHILLIPS REAL ESTATE

We have sold this unit four times.

Bill Phillips has sold 2107 Golden Oaks Lane four times — including to you — and formerly managed the Golden Oaks association. He is a CACM-certified HOA manager who, through Terra Vista HOA Management, runs more than forty Peninsula associations today. When a buyer's lender asks about Golden Oaks' reserves, special assessments or financials, the answer comes from someone who has sat on the management side of that table. Three generations of Phillips Real Estate on the Peninsula, since 1959.

Sold 2107 four times · Former Golden Oaks HOA manager · CACM certified · HOA manager · 40+ associations · Condo specialist · Bill Phillips · DRE# 00625289 · Andrew Phillips · DRE# 02061112 · Since 1959

This unit, four times

We know the floor plan, the building, the patio and what buyers asked about every time 2107 sold. No learning curve on this listing.

Condo expert. HOA manager.

Bill formerly managed the Golden Oaks association and is CACM certified. We read HOA financials for a living: cleaner disclosures, fewer surprises in escrow, a buyer who closes.

Two agents, one listing

Bill and Andrew share every listing. Showings, calls and offers never wait for one person's calendar.

Pricing from evidence

Twenty-one listings, dated and sorted by what actually happened. The number on page one comes from the last 90 days, not a software average.

Manage. Lease. Sell.

NEXT STEPS

1. Agree on the list price range
2. Sign the listing agreement (sent by DocuSign the same day)
3. Confirm the VA loan's rate, balance and assumability with the servicer
4. Order the Golden Oaks HOA disclosure package
5. Schedule photography, 3D tour and floor plan — the aerial is done
6. Pick the launch Thursday
